Benefit concert packs Tucson chapel

CLYDE, Mo.— Italy’s SAT Choir performed for a packed house during a benefit concert for the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration’s Tucson, Ariz., community in May (photo below). The 30-member men’s choir hails from Trento, Italy, and performed a variety of religious and traditional Italian songs.

“The chapel was overflowing with people,” Tucson Prioress Sister Ramona Varela, OSB said. “‘Fabulous and fantastic’ were words used to describe the concert. It was a wonderful evening.”

The concert raised more than $8,000, and all proceeds benefit the Tucson Benedictine Sisters’ Preserving Our Heritage fund. Currently, the Sisters have raised more than $260,000 toward their $1 million-goal. For more information, please click on www.tucsonmonastery.com/preserve.asp.
