Tucson community hosts weekend discernment for young women considering religious life

CLYDE, Mo.— The Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration offered a discernment weekend in February at their Tucson, Ariz., monastery for women who wanted to learn more about monastic life and Benedictine values.

Single women who are discerning a call to religious life enjoyed the opportunity to enter into the rhythm of the Benedictine Sisters' contemplative life, learn how set aside time and space for listening to God and share with others who are also seeking God more intentionally.

The Benedictine Sisters host a variety of discernment weekends and monastic experiences throughout the year for single women who may or may not be discerning a call.

For information about upcoming events, please contact Vocation Director Sister Ruth Starman, OSB at (660) 944-2221 or e-mail vocation@benedictinesisters.org.
