Tucson Benedictines to host Discernment Weekend

CLYDE, Mo. – The Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in Tucson will host a Discernment Weekend Feb. 20-22, 2009.

The event invites single women ages 18-40 who are discerning a call to religious life the opportunity to enter into the rhythm of the Benedictine Sisters' contemplative life, to have time and space for listening to God and to share with others who are also seeking God more intentionally.

For more information about the Discernment Weekend, please contact Sr. Lupita Barajas at (520) 325-6401, e-mail vocationtucson@bspa.us or click on www.tucsonmonastery.com/vocations/event_contact.asp.

The Benedictine Sisters host a variety of activities, such as the upcoming Discernment Weekend, to allow women an opportunity to discover God's call to religious life.
