Monastery Scents launches new line of guest and favor soaps

Clyde, Mo.—The Benedictine tradition places a high value on hospitality, so Monastery Creations has created the opportunity to show your guests the same gentle and gracious care.

The Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration now offer a new line of guest soaps that can be used in your home or as a wedding or party favor for guests.

Each bar of soap is carefully blended, individually cut and wrapped and the set is sealed with the monastery's wax logo. The package of six costs $12.

An attached card, featuring the unique art of the sisters, gives an explanation of the soap and the prayer that goes into it. These lovely guest soap sets make an ideal gift or a wonderful addition to your own home.

Soaps are individually wrapped and packaged in sets of six, containing three each of the two most popular fragrances - Mayan Gold and Swiss Lavender.

Mayan Gold is a rich and exotic fragrance that is a favorite of many. Swiss Lavender is a soothing, calming fragrance made with lavender blossoms from our Swiss Sisters and also grown at the monastery in Clyde, Mo.

Fragrance and essential oils, shea and cocoa butters, olive, coconut, palm, palm kernel, almond and castor oils are the natural ingredients that make these soaps environment-friendly and great for your skin. In addition, each batch contains a few drops of holy water and a prayer for those who will use the soap.
