Prayer requests help renew faith

CLYDE, Mo. – A ministry of prayer is the hallmark of the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, and they have been extra busy in November.

Each fall, the Benedictine Sisters send prayer intention cards to thousands of people on their mailing list. More than 1,500 responded with names of those who have passed and for others who need a little extra prayer in their lives.

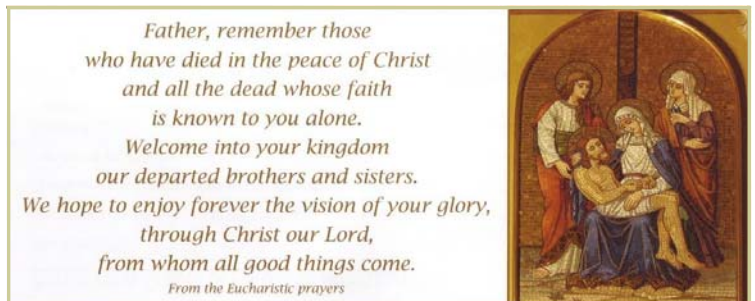

“November is the month when Benedictines traditionally remember in prayer those who have died,” Sister Dawn Annette Mills, OSB said. “We ask our friends to send the names of loved ones who have passed so that we may pray for them during our community prayers,”

Sisters and those in formation in the correspondence department handle prayer requests all year. However, the fall Prayer of Remembrance mailing is especially joyful as it encourages people to share their prayers in a special way.

“The most rewarding part of reading these intentions is witnessing the faith people have in God and in the power of prayer,” Sister Dawn Annette said. “Their faith renews my faith and keeps my prayer practical and connected to real people and real needs.”

The Benedictine Sisters welcome prayer requests throughout the year by mail, phone, email and on the Web at www.BenedictineSisters.org.

For more information, please contact Sister Dawn Annette at (660) 944-2221 or dawn@benedictinesisters.org.
