San Benito community blessed with a variety of summer visitors

CLYDE, Mo.— Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration at the San Benito community in Dayton, Wyo., have been blessed with a variety of visitors during the early part of the summer.

» In recent months, members of the Knights of Columbus have been busy at work. Projects included building a new bridge along one of the monastery's walking paths.

The Knights also worked on the roof, put a new door on the Monastery Creations gift shop, fixed gutters, scraped and painted chimneys and moved heavy flower pots.

» The Sisters welcomed students from Holy Name School for their annual retreat in May. They stayed for the day, enjoying a noon meal and a talk on the Eucharist by Sister Hope Rodenborn, OSB.
